TO ALL BOARD CHAIRS, PRINCIPALS AND TEACHERS

Warm greetings from the Central Jamaica Conference Education Department!

We are delighted to extend a cordial invitation to our upcoming Early Childhood Education Seminar, specifically designed for the advancement of early childhood education within our Seventh-day Adventist institutions, as well as schools associated with our churches.

Date: May 9, 2024

Time: 9:00 am

Venue: O.B McKenzie Auditorium Willowdene Group of Schools

The seminar will provide information for improving the overall conduct of the institution, Understanding Inspection Standards and Registration Process, and Who is the Adventist Teacher?

Our esteemed presenters for this seminar include Tracy-Ann Morgan-Smith, PhD, JP, who serves as the Director of Regulation and Monitoring at the Early Childhood Commission for the Ministry of Education, and Dr. Vencie Allida, an esteemed Associate Professor at Northern Caribbean University.

Your attendance at this seminar is not only valued but truly pivotal to the success of our shared mission toward excellence in early childhood education. We firmly believe that your active participation will contribute immensely to the enriching discussions and collaborative learning experience that this seminar promises to offer.

Kindly ask each attendee to confirm their attendance by completing the form using the link below as we make the necessary arrangements for your comfort and convenience.
