OFFICIAL STATEMENT RE “TEACHING ENGLISH IN JAPAN” SEMINAR AT ADVENTIST CHURCH ON WALKS ROAD

Dear Members:

It has come to our attention that the following message is being circulated on social media (especially WhatsApp):

“anyone interested in teaching English in Japan, qualification a first degree doesn't have to be in English. There will be a seminar at the Adventist Church on Walks Road, Spanish Town this Saturday, May 19 starting at 4pm recruiting 90 young people to fill the positions”

We have made checks with the Adventist Churches within the vicinity of Walks Road and we cannot confirm that this announcement is valid. We are treating the above information as fake and ask that you do the same.

Central Jamaica Conference is the governing body of the Seventh-day Adventist churches within the parishes of Manchester, St. Catherine and Clarendon.

The official communication channels of the Central Jamaica Conference are as follows:

1. Website (centralja.org)
2. Weekly e-focus (via email to subscribers)
3. Letters (with official Adventist letterheads)
4. Social media platforms (Facebook, Twitter and Instagram) belonging to CJC
5. Central Focus Magazine (Print)
6. WhatsApp Groups created by CJC

We ask that these channels be used to verify information from or regarding the Adventist Church activities within the Central Jamaica Conference territory. Thank you for your attention.

Yours in the Master's Service,

Damian Chambers

Director - Communication, Health, Assistant to the President for Evangelism
