MY WORD WILL NOT RETURN TO ME EMPTY

PASTOR ISAÍAS ESPINOZA DISTRIBUTION OF THE MISSIONARY BOOK SÁBBATH APRIL 12, 2025

Biblical Text

So is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it. Isaiah 55:11

Introduction

Andrés Elías Torres, a student at Linda Vista University in the Mexican Union of Chiapas, says that in the summer of the year 2022, he was canvassing in the city of Playa del Carmen Q.R.

It had been recommended that he visit some people who were beginning to study the Bible and who might be interested in the books he had brought with him. One morning, he went out canvassing. At 1 p.m., he returned to the house to rest and eat. That day, it had been raining, and he was tempted to stay home on the pretext of the rain, but finally, he decided to go out canvassing.

He checked his list of references and saw the name of Mrs. Mayra, he took the address and under the rain he arrived at the place that indicated the address, there was a green house with a black gate, the gate was simple, and it was easy to see from inside who was on the other side of the gate. He knocked and waited, a young man came out who saw him perfectly and asked him who he was looking for, he answered that he was looking for Mrs. Mayra.

The young man was her son, he told him, I will be back in a moment. I will tell my mother. After a moment the young man returned, opened the gate and indicated that he could pass, when he entered the house Mrs. Mayra was waiting for him, she was sitting on a chair and there were two more chairs ready, he greeted her and when he sat down, she asked him surprised, where is your partner?, Andres was surprised and said I come alone. She answered with confidence; my son, the young man who received you, told me Mom, two tall boys with backpacks are looking for you. For that reason, I put two chairs.

When Andrew heard that his whole body bristled, and he knew that young man had seen an angel, that was his angel, he could not see him, but he was there accompanying him, that day Andrew closed a successful sale in that home, the books delivered that carried the precious seed of the gospel were left with the people that God had already prepared to receive them, because his promise is that his word will do what He wants.

Body

1. God searches where everything seems illogical

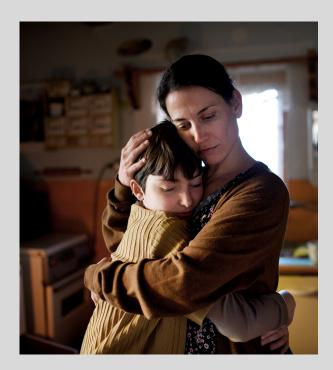

The God of mission is always at work, His Holy Spirit continues to touch hearts, in places and with people that humans would see no chance of success.

a.He looked for Paul while he was a persecutor; no disciple in his right mind would think that Paul was a prospect to be turned into a Bible study, rather he was synonymous with terror, someone to be as far away from as possible; but God looked where everything seemed illogical.

b.The God of hope approaches the homes of wealthy people, but also humble homes, people who are in an office, but also those who live under bridges. Salvation has no favorites, it is for everyone. The desire of the missionary God is that we can all be saved.

c.The world extends before the scrutinizing gaze of the God of the mission; there is not a single prayer for help that God does not hear; consequently, He looks for ways and means for that penitent soul to meet with His word, so that the truth frees him, and gives him hope. The books that carry the message of salvation fulfill that purpose, holy messengers, that can be forgotten, mutilated, for years, but at the right time they will fulfill God's design: "My word will not return to me empty, but will do what I will".

2. God guides his messengers in miraculous ways to fulfill his purposes.

a.In Acts chapter ten we find the story of Peter and the Roman centurion named Cornelius. God Himself manifested Himself to Cornelius and told him what to do, Cornelius fulfilling the will of God sends for Peter, the Lord knows that Peter's prejudices will prevent him from going to the place he wants, so God takes the time to give Peter a vision with the appropriate meaning "Do not call unclean that which God has created" (ver. 15), God acts miraculously because he desires that His word reaches the hearts that seek it.

b.Now we have dedicated these books, we have asked God to take us to the people who are crying out to him for his word, let us not be afraid to go out and take this seed of his word, because as God prepared Peter and Cornelius, he has also prepared thousands of people who today will receive his word through these books.

c.The strength of women will be a powerful tool in God's hands for the fulfillment of the mission, children, youth, adults, elders, under the leadership of women today will be led by the Holy Spirit so that like Peter, they will find many Cornelians praying for a messenger of God to come into their lives.

3. God always makes His word accomplish His purposes

a. Jonah refused to go on the mission entrusted by God; he had to go through a bitter experience to finally reluctantly go almost against his will, but he went. He fulfilled the mission in the hope that God would do what he desired: destroy all the inhabitants of Nineveh. However, God desired to save, even though his word had come for an unwilling servant; his word fulfilled God's purposes: to save the lost.

b.We messengers do not know the depth of God's designs about his word, our view is very limited of what God can do with a simple and humble book, therefore, if your case is like Jonah's and you are going reluctantly, let God do his will despite your indisposition, because God is always seeking how to save his children, even if his brothers do not want it.

c.My word will do what I will, says the Lord. How powerful is his word, the book of Hebrews reminds us:

"For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart". Hebrews 4:12.

Conclusion

My dear brother, today is a special day for the saving mission of God, today He invites you to join His saving plan in favor of others who do not have the blessing of knowing Him as you do, do not get tired of doing good, do not get tired of being part of the history of salvation, be the hands, feet, lips of the Lord for this day, you will be surprised of what God will do with His word; because His eternal assertion is: "It will not fly to me empty".

Come to the altar, let us pray to consecrate to the Lord these books that carry his word, and let God fulfill his purposes.

May God bless you.
